

The high lift tipper with anti-scatter hood is designed to tip waste material such as flour into large waste containers. The anti-scatter hood encompasses the whole of the tipping area significantly reducing the amount of excess dust and particles generated by fine waste product that can escape and soil the surrounding working area during the tipping process

OPTIONAL EXTRAS

Audible alarm, upgraded lifting capacity of 1 tonne, integrated waste container with automatic lid

